(To be submitted to SOCAN/Entandem within 30 days after completion of performance)

(New Process-effective June 2022)

Entandem (www.entandemlicensing.com) is a joint venture between SOCAN and RE:SOUND and they are now handling all SOCAN show reporting and payments:

- a. Complete and submit to Entandem their 4A1-5J_Popular_Music_Concert_Entandem_Form (see sample page one below). This report form is available for download in the BHS Member Center, or request a copy by sending an email to library@barbershop.org. The form is a Microsoft Excel document and was created by SOCAN/Entandem for Society Canadian Chapter use. Completing the report is easy to use and automatically calculates your chapter's fees due to SOCAN/Entandem.

Select Language: English, French
Select Tariff: MUSIC LICENSE FORM - POPULAR MUSIC CONCERTS (Per Event)

Per event license

- Licenses from SOCAN and RE:SOUND cover live performances of popular music at concerts, and the use of recorded music during the entrance and exit of audiences and during breaks in live performances at concerts.
- Per concert fee for RE:SOUND is $15. RE:SOUND license does not apply to the use of recorded music as part of the live performance.
- SOCAN license permits the public performance of musical works in a live popular music concert by performers in person (including featured DJs) at concert halls, theatres or other places of entertainment, including an open-air event and performance by lip syncing or miming, subject to the legal terms on reverse. SOCAN license does not apply to performances of music covered under SOCAN Tariff 3.A (p. 22).
- Per concert fee for SOCAN is 3% of either: (a) gross receipts from ticket sales (excluding taxes), if admission is charged; or (b) fees paid to singers, musicians, dancers, conductors and all other entertainers, if no admission is charged, plus taxes. Subject to a minimum fee of $35 per concert.
- Deadline to submit fees and report to Entandem is 30 days from the concert.
