REMEMBERING.....

BILL BUSH, longtime SeattleSeachordsman, chapter officer, Division II multiple Convention

Co-Chair, chapter leader and friend to many, passed away recently. Bill was a Professor of Radiology at the University of Washington, avid fly fisherman, and major supporter of all the Seattle sports teams in the area. Bill will be greatly missed by his singing brothers in the Seachordsmen.

WILLIE KLEEN, a 54-year member of the Society, began singing in high school with Chuck Olson (The Aliens) Dale Deiser (Mark Four, 1969 international champions), and Gale Hering. The Minor Chords competed in the Forest Grove Ballad Town Contest in 1952, '53, and '54. Willie was an emeritus member of the Masters of Harmony Chorus, singing with them to win 3 international chorus contests. In the Far Western District, he sang with the well-known arranger, Earl Moon, in Four Points West, a popular quartet that performed on many chapter shows. In 2004, he returned to the Ballad Town contest with John Burri, Paul Ogean (sp?), and Jeff Welch. Along the way, he made many good friends that he valued highly.
